WASHINGTON, June 17, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- UATP is pleased to enter a strategic partnership with Skål International USA effective immediately. The partnership will support their common goal of enriching the travel industry via available products and uniting the travel and tourism industry.

"We look forward to forging a relationship with UATP. Together we share a mutual goal of bettering the travel industry," said David Ryan, President of Skål USA. "We are a strong believer in the importance of travel insurance, especially for members of our Skål USA community who are continuously traveling throughout the year."

Skål USA is endorsing UATP's Travel Protection Plan, Insider's Club, to its members throughout the country. Insider's Club is an annual travel insurance available only to members of the travel industry. UATP will be promoting Skål USA and the benefits of becoming a member of their organization to travel leaders within their Network. Skål USA is the largest national committee of Skål International, with some of the most senior leaders in travel in its membership.

"Partnering with Skål USA further reinforces UATP's commitment to the travel industry," Wendy Ward, SVP, Marketing and Communications, UATP. "We are facing unprecedented times right now which makes coming together to support our fellow industry members even more important."
