SKAL has been part of my life since I was a kid. Women weren't allowed back then except for the Xmas party, and I was only 12 when I attended my first SKAL meeting as my Dad's date for that years' party when my mom was out of town. When he passed away, many asked me to join, but my mother took over his role at that time and I waited until she was ready to ask me to come aboard. Because of their involvement, I actually attended my first NASC before I was even a member.
