From Surviving to Thriving - Overcoming Challenges to Tourism with COVID-19 Restrictions - A Case Study

Speakers Bios

Teri Davena, Economic Development Specialist, City of Benicia, CA

Teri has more than 20 years' experience in municipal economic development. In addition to communications and small business assistance, she focuses on tourism and to bringing visitors to Benicia, increasing Benicia's profile as a unique destination for a great day by the bay.

Mario Giuliani, Economic Development Manager, City of Benicia, CA

Mario has been assisting large and small business owners in Benicia to prosper and thrive since 2010. In Mario's words, "People don't come to City Hall to get a permit, they come to open their business, it's our job to find a way to get to yes." Mario's helpful, positive attitude is invaluable in business retention, expansion and attraction.
